=Note=

- * DO NOT FORGET TO BRING your “Participants’ Handbook (this handbook)” with you.
- * You are responsible for your domestic cost in your country. Transportation, accommodation or meals between your home and the international airport are not paid by this program.
- * Call the Emergency Contact Number if your flight departure delays after the Travel Agent sees you off at the immigration, due to airport control or aircraft problem, etc.
- * Meals at the transit airport are provided when necessary if your scheduled flight is non-direct to/from Japan.
- * When you come back to your country, you will be discharged at the international airport. You need to tell your arrival time if your family picks you up at your home airport.

4. Preparation Home Works

(1) Preliminary Research

While you are still in the home countries, all of the participants are required to conduct the preliminary research about the designated theme:

- A: Natural Disaster,
- B: Economic Development,
- C: Environmental Problems,
- D: Social Activities in Community

Topics of preliminary research are such as, but not limited to, the issues your country confronts, how the local government handles the situations, your thoughts to solve the problems, pros and cons of your society, how to develop the relationships between your country and other nations in the ASEAN region.

(2) Profile Sheet

Fill the “Abstract of Preliminary Research” field and “Objectives To Achieve” field on the Profile Sheet.

As for Abstract of Preliminary Research, please describe the findings of your homework briefly and share them with the other group members.

As for Objectives To Achieve, please describe the summarized ideas of your goal you expect to achieve by attending the program.

JENESYS 2017 Japan-ASEAN Students Conference program is designed to give you new insights, broaden your perspective, and contribute to developing your future career path. The program will be more useful and meaningful to you, if you set up your objectives you would like to achieve through the program.

Print this profile sheet out by yourself and bring it to the group workshop session held on September 19 (Day1). Handwriting is allowable. You don't have to submit Profile Sheet at the workshop. This is just for your help.

5. Additional things to bring to Japan

Beside “Thing to Bring to Japan” on the Participants Handbook in Chapter 2, please refer following:

Outside temperature of day time in Tohoku area (Iwate, Miyagi) in September is around 15 centigrade. So please bring proper clothes (light jacket, sweater, etc.) to protect yourself against the cold.
